

Frankfurt for the fully-fledged

Vibrant cultural centre and business metropolis

It's a hard-to-kill legend: the old tale of Frankfurt as a high-rise, low-charm city. Wrong! The metropolis on the River Main has lots more to offer than the stock exchange, banks and trade fairs:

During the football season, the Frankfurt Galaxy team packs them in at the "Waldstadion" arena, filling the last seat, while the Niederrad race-course causes regular bouts of betting fever, and, in summer, the Main and the Rhine are just fine for romantic boat trips. Besides the "Äppel-

Attractions in Frankfurt

- More than 2,300 restaurants, cafés
- 38 parks
- Zoo
- Niederrad racecourse
- Boat trips on Main and Rhine
- Cider tour "Äppelwoi Express" in Sachsenhausen
- Shopping in Goethe Street, "Zeil" and "Freßgass" or in outlet stores
- Fascination Airport (to experience continental Europe's biggest airport)
- Flight simulator
- Guided tours in one of the famous cider presses
- Guided tours through the "Höchster Porzellanmanufaktur" china factory
- Visit to Germany's highest TV/radio station, the Maintower (Hessischer Rundfunk, Hesse's regional broadcaster)
- Street festivals and events, - from "Opernplatzfest" to "Fressgassfest"
- Ironman (German finals)
- Euro City Marathon (on foot or roller skates)
- "Museumsuferfest" (riverside cultural street festival with 300,000 visitors)

Culture in Frankfurt

- Riverside museums numbering over 13 (for German film, architecture, post, icons)
- „Städel“ (Städelsches Kunstinstitut; art institute)
- German leather and shoe museum (Offenbach)
- Senkenberg, Apfelwein, Struwwelpeter, and Jewish museums
- "Schirn", Museum of modern art
- "Goethehaus" (birthplace of J.W. Goethe)
- "Paulskirche" (St. Paul's church) (1st German constitution)
- Frankfurt Cathedral
- Frankfurter "Römer" (town hall)
- "Alte Oper" (venue staging the greatest number of balls in Germany)
- Opera and playhouse
- Frankfurt ballet
- TAT – Theater (theatre)
- "Künstlerhaus Mousonturm" (artists' house)
- Comedy and popular theatre
- „Fritz Rémond Theater im Zoo“ (theatre in Frankfurt Zoo) • English Theatre
- Variety theatre "Tigerpalast"

woi" (cider) scene in "Sachsenhausen", the city is famous for its multi-faceted restaurant and night life. Culture vultures will get their money's worth at the "Alte Oper" and will not want to miss out on the numerous museums (Schirn Kunsthalle, Städel, Goethehaus), theaters (TAT, Tigerpalast) and architectural gems (Maintower). And there's even something special in store for nature lovers: the "Palmengarten", one of the prettiest gardens in Europe, and the "Rheingau" meadows, which start right before the city gates. The bill of fare is rounded off by the four hotels in the ArabellaSheraton and Starwood Group which provide the perfect setting for any event. The Sheraton Frankfurt Hotel & Towers at Frankfurt Airport is the ideal meeting point for national & international conferences, exhibitions, major events and congresses, while the historic ArabellaSheraton Hotel Am Büsing Palais – a symbiosis of traditional and modern – welcomes its guests to receptions and events set in an idyllic parkscape with a mature stock of trees. The ArabellaSheraton Grand Hotel, in a central location close to the "Hauptwache" (the main police station), offers exquisite rooms and suites of every size for each special occasion; and the ArabellaSheraton Congress Hotel, situated right next to Frankfurt's "Stadtwald" (urban park) is the ultimate venue for conferences, congresses and events in the immediate vicinity of the country's biggest companies. Reason enough for conference planners to hold their next event in "Mainhattan". Right?

Event locations

- "Hofgut Hünersdorff" (lovely old country manor accommodating up to 800)
- Frankfurter "Römer" (town hall, unique cellar vault seating up to 800)
- "Capitol Offenbach" (musical theater seating up to 600)
- Buesing Palais (open-air venue with unique backdrop, for up to 600)
- Terminal 2 at the Airport for up to 600 (celebrations in a modern setting with a view of the runways)
- Senkenberg Museum (dining with dinosaurs! For up to 250)
- Small and Exclusive (Lufthansa Flight Training Center – have your group take off to a destination of your choice...)

ArabellaSheraton Grand Hotel
Sheraton Frankfurt Hotel & Towers
Our team will be happy to advise you on +49-069 6633 1270
www.arabellasheraton.com/region-frankfurt

ArabellaSheraton Congress Hotel
ArabellaSheraton Hotel Am Büsing Palais

ArabellaSheraton

STARWOOD
HOTELS & RESORTS WORLDWIDE, INC.